

in association with and

Present

CHESTER CITY PASSION

Good Friday, 25 March 2016 - 10.30am

On the streets of Chester City Centre

Free event

For more information see
chestermysteryplays.com

Photo by Neil Kendall (from Chester Mystery Plays at Liverpool Cathedral in 2013)

CHESTER CITY PASSION

Script: Chester Mystery Plays

Director: Matt Baker

Costume: chestercostumehouse.co.uk

Choreography: Cariad Morgan

Chester Mystery Plays and Theatre in the Quarter have joined with Churches Together in Chester City Centre and Link Up to produce a dramatised 'Way of the Cross' in the streets of Chester on Good Friday morning.

The performance will start at the Eastgate Street clock with Jesus' entry to Jerusalem and the Last Supper at the Cross. It will then process to the Town Hall Square for Gethsemane and the Trial, finishing at the West door of the Cathedral with the Crucifixion.

Community actors will join with the Passion chorus, drawn from Chester Mystery Plays, Theatre in Quarter, church choir and community performers and Chester schools.

The performance will feature Matt Baker's extraordinary music from the last three productions of the Mystery Plays, and looks forward to the next in 2018.

Join us for this very special journey - it will last no more than 45 minutes and is completely free of charge.

.....

The next full production of Chester Mystery Plays will be in the nave of Chester Cathedral from 27 June - 14 July 2018

For more information see
chestermysteryplays.com

Working with:

- Chester Blue Coat Church of England Primary School
- Chester Cathedral
- Chester Quaker Meeting
- HBC Chester
- Karamba Samba
- Northgate Church
- Roman Tours
- St Clare's Catholic Primary School
- St Peter's Church
- St Werburgh's and St Columba's Catholic Primary School
- Wesley Church Centre

